a fragment

16:64pneu 29

"And I thought to myself, how nice it is
For me to live in a world like this,
When things can happen & clocks can strike,
And none of the people are made alike;
When Los wants this, & Spain wants that,
And all our heads want it - for. but,
In the jumble we make with our heads & hands
In a world which nobody understands;
But with work & hope & the right to call Upon Him who sees it & knows us all."

'Life is not a story; the earnest live & they alone.'

'Be fit for more than the one thing you are doing.'

'Because of the roses we water the thorns.'

The House of Education,
